Activities and Issues

10/10 Door knocked in Alamosa with the Don Vermillion campaign team.
10/21 Attended ACE (Alliance for Competitive Elections) online meeting.
10/25 Attended LP Region 9 Chairs online meeting.
Final recap of outreach of registered Libertarians in 2026. In Congressional District 3 I have visited registered Libertarians in 9 different counties: Montrose, Gunnison, Delta, and Dolores counties and parts of Alamosa, Mesa, Montezuma, Rio Grande and Saguache counties. In Congressional District 2 I have visited registered Libertarians in Chaffee County (Salida and Poncha Springs). I distributed door hangers with the Libertarian Candidate Guide for the November ballot and QR codes for people to become LPCO sustaining members and join the 1776 Club. In total, I attempted to reach 531 Libertarians. 13% of homes (71) could not be accessed due to secure senior living, a gated driveway, dogs running free in the yard, or could not find the address. Statistics from the 463 registered Libertarian doors I knocked on: 89% of homes (411) I was able to deliver an Election Guide door hanger. 11% of Libertarians (49) had moved and the S.O.S. records were outdated. Someone answered the door at 42% of the homes (193). At 22% of the homes (103) I spoke to the Libertarian. 8% of the Libertarians (36) said they were interested in receiving more information from LPCO and provided a new email address. In Montrose County, this almost doubled the number of emails (from 22 emails to 40 emails). I found that Monday through Thursday evening from 6 pm to dusk was the best time for people to be home and answer their door. Friday afternoon and Saturday morning/afternoons had a moderate response. I also knocked on doors with the Doug Jones HD15 campaign in Colorado Springs. I did not track the response rate, but overall, a smaller percentage of people answered their doors in HD15 compared to western Colorado. The purpose of the above data is to set realistic expectations of door knocking for developing future county parties and/or developing a campaign team.

OUTREACH DIRECTOR REPORT

Outreach Director Activities

Manned table at Tanner Gun Show, Colorado Springs, October 10-11 with Brian Flanagan, Doug Jones, Rick Graf, and Janet Turner. Show attendance was somewhat less than anticipated. 4 contacts made, but one of them, army or air force, resides and votes in Reno, Nevada. The show at the Douglas County Fairgrounds in Castle Rock will be November 14-15. Affiliates are expected to share the expense with LPCO as well as man the tables.

For LPEPC, attended a Get Out the Vote event in Colorado Springs, October 27. Also manning the table were Robin Early, Doug Jones, Rick Graf, Brian Flanagan, and Janet Turner.

Manned a table at CSU in Fort Collins for their Civic Fair, 10/26/2026. No Libertarian volunteers from Larimer County applied.

Printed another 80 quizzes to put in the “Jump Kit” after the “Jump Kit” came back from Chris Hardman’s table in Idaho Springs. Put another spot of adhesive on the supremely cheap frame on the quiz poster. The frame edges just slide on/off, so it’s not very durable.

Respectfully submitted,

John Hjersman, Outreach Director
